Jerry Morrison

Jerry is from Centralia, Washington. He has been in the electrical trade for about 18 years. He has worked for EC Electrical for 11 years and is currently the General Foreman for EC at the Bates Technical College Project.

As General Foreman he oversees his crew here at Bates. This involves making sure that every crew member has all the information and material they need for their job. His most important job is supporting his team in going above and beyond when it comes to safety.

Outside of work Jerry enjoys spending time with his family which includes his fiancé and their kid. He also spends a lot of time working on his house and property. Jerry will also be rooting for the Seahawks this weekend. Go Hawks!
CMU WAS BEING INSTALLED ON SITE THIS WEEK. THESE PHOTOS ARE FROM THE SOUTHEAST AND NORTHEAST CORNER.

BATES FACT OF THE WEEK: Bates was first a Technical Education Program started in the basement of Hawthorne Elementary School in 1940.
MEP rough-in can be seen for Levels 1, 2, and 3 in these photos. A lot of progress has been made on these levels over the past few weeks. Level 4 rough-in was started this week as the exterior framing was finishing up.
