Emergency Medical Technician Program

Fall Quarter 2022

EMT Program Fall 2022

FIRES225, Emergency Med Tech
Class #27800 , 14 credits
Class Meet Time:
Tues & Thurs: 5:30-10pm; Saturdays: 8am-6pm
Instructor: David Koehler

September 26 – December 9, 2022

Web-enhanced

This course prepares students to meet the requirements for employment as an EMT-B. It adheres to the U.S. Department of Transportation Guidelines and the Washington State Department of Social and Health Services Standards.

FIRES209, Healthcare Provider
Course #27796, 1 credit
Class Meet Time:
Tues & Thurs: 5:30-10pm; Saturdays: 8am-6pm
Instructor: David Koehler

September 26 – December 9, 2022

Web-enhanced

This course is designed to provide a wide variety of healthcare professionals the ability to recognize several life-threatening emergencies, provide CPR, use an AED, and relieve choking in a safe, timely and effective manner. The course is intended for certified or noncertified, licensed or non-licensed healthcare professionals.

Required Textbook:
Jones & Bartlett Learning (package available through publisher jblearning.com)
AAOS Emergency Care 12th edition
ISBN: 9781284236965 (Includes Required: Traditional Paper Textbook, Advantage Supplement, and FISDAP Assessment Package)